

delfort

Tersil® glassine release base paper for pressure-sensitive applications benefits

- approximately 60% more m² per ton with Tersil® UltraLight Base glassine compared to conventional Tersil® Base glassine
- designed for efficient siliconizing, lamination, die cutting and label dispensing
- excellent runnability on machines
- suitable for all silicone systems
- food contact approved, produced according to ISO 22000
- made from FSC® (FSC-STD-40-004) or PEFC™ (2002:2020) certified pulp

features

- our range of basis weight from 50 to 71 g/m², UltraLight version's basis weight 35 g/m²
- exceptional surface properties, smooth and glossy finish
- optimal density and compressibility
- super calendered
- available in white, gold and honey colors

applications

- release base paper for pressure-sensitive industry
- full range of self-adhesive labeling applications
- primary product labels
- high-speed labeling variable information printing

variants

- Tersil® Base glassine
- Tersil® UltraLight Base glassine

